Mrs. Les (Freda) Hanelt Retiring This Week

Freda Hanelt

City-School Nurse Freda Hanelt retires the first of January after seven and a half years as school nurse in the Albany High and Marin schools and city nurse in the Marin district.

The Hanelts lived in Albany for 21 years at 810 Pierce. Their three children were educated in Albany schools. When their daughter enrolled in San Francisco State, her parents moved there. Later, when she went to Europe to study for 14 months, the Hanelts moved to Oakland. The couple is looking forward to moving to their fabulous Redwood House at Yorkville, which Freda planned with the architects and which is to be featured in House Beautiful Magazine after the guest house is completed.

Mrs. Hanelt, a native of Massachusetts, received her nursing degree there and became an army nurse. She met her husband, a native of North Dakota who was raised in Berkeley, in Honolulu during World War II. After his discharge, they came here.

Hanelt is a retired Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army and soon will retire from National Lead company, where he is a supervisor and has worked 33 years.

They were members of St. Alban's Episcopal church here. She is a member of Albany Sorority club and Marin and Albany High PTAs. The Sorority club feted her at a farewell party on Dec. 18.

Their children are Bob, 27, who is married to the former Kristi Fouts, and is a graduate of California Maritime Academy and now working on his master's degree in business administration dealing with the maritime industry; Peter, 23, graduate of West Point in 1967, now in Germany with the Signal Corps, and Valerie, 21, former Maid of Albany, who will enter the University of California at Davis to major in food technology.

Happy New Year!

A THIRD GENERATION March of Dimes volunteer, 10-month old Lisa Feusler poses as baby 1969 while issuing a reminder that the first month of the year is the time to support the March of Dimes in its effort to prevent birth defects. Lisa's grandmother, Mrs. Bernard Johnson, has worked for the Mothers' March 15 years and was chairman in Albany three years. Her mother, Mrs. Mario Feusler, the former Beverly Johnson, was Dimes teen chairman at Albany High school.

HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMAS EARNED IN ADULT CLASS

In the past few years, the high school diploma has become the badge for employment in the San Francisco Bay Area. Almost every employer will ask the question of prospective employees, "Do you have a high school diploma?" If the answer is no, the interview frequently ends with no further immediate prospects of getting the job.

Times have changed. A few short years ago, the eighth grade diploma was all that was needed to obtain employment. Now in an age of automation and advanced technology, the high school diploma has become a basic requirement. In the years to come it will take even more education to satisfy the requirements of industry and business.

The curriculum at the Albany Adult school offers courses in all subjects needed to meet all requirements for the high school diploma. These are the requirements established by the State Department of Education and comprise English, mathematics, science, U.S. history and American government. In addition, the Adult school offers over 100 other courses which can be used for high school credit.

Any individual in the community who is interested in obtaining a diploma should call the Albany Adult school and ask for an appointment with the principal. An individualized diploma program can then be discussed and reviewed for your consideration. The phone number is 526-6441.

The categories for awards are the most beautiful neck piece, the most drab neck piece, the neck tie received from the mother-in-law, any member displaying an original creation designed and made up by himself which he thinks should become fashionable in time to come and the best matching combination of necktie and socks.

The judges will be furnished with dark lenses to view the sartorial splendor and according to George Pickett, chairman, he is selecting a panel of men of the community to judge contestants. The refreshment department
